CRAIG'S PUBLICATIONS

Salem County Marriage Records

Compiled by H. STANLEY CRAIG

"Records of marriages are always of inestimable value to the genealogist. Mr. Craig has here combined in one volume the marriage records of Salem County, taken from the New Jersey Archives, from the County Clerk's Records, from the Salem and Pilesgrove Friends Meeting Records, from the Pittsgrove Presbyterian and Baptist Church Records, from the Penns Neck Old Swedes Church Records, and from the Cohansey Lutheran Church Records. They are given separately by the name of the grooms, arranged alphabetically. At the end is an index of all the womens' names. The work is well compiled and presented and is heartily recommended to all genealogical libraries." — New York Genealogical and Biographical Record.

Gloucester County Marriage Records

"In this volume Mr. Craig has gathered together in accessible form the marriage records of Gloucester Co., N. J. In it are included those marriages from the New Jersey Archives pertaining to Gloucester Co., the County Clerk's Records, the Records of Trinity P. E. Church, Swedesboro, Haddonfield (originally in Gloucester County) and Woodbury Friends Meeting Records, Marriage Register of Jeffrey Clark, Journal of Thomas Clark Samuel Mickle's and Ann Whitall's Diaries. The lists are printed alphabetically by the surname of the bridegroom and the volume contains a complete index of all the brides. A most valuable genealogical compilation, which is heartily recommended to all genealogical libraries."—New York Genealogical and Biographical Record.

"Mr. Craig deserves commendation and thanks from historians and genealogists for adding this volume to similar works on Salem County and 'The Salem Tenth.' Here are thousands of names arranged alphabetically with a very helpful 'Index to Women's Names.' It should find a place in every public and private library." —Quarterly Journal, N. Y. State Hist. Assn.

Cape May County Marriage Records

Compiled by H. Stanley Craig and Julius Way, M. D.

"The series of marriage records of New Jersey being published by Mr. Craig are of increasing value with each additional book. This volume is divided into several parts, each listed alphabetically by the name of the groom. The first list is extracted from the New Jersey Archives,; the second from Liber A of Deeds; the third, fourth, fifth and sixth from County Clerk's Records, Book A, Liber B, Book B and C reepectively; the seventh and eighth from the Upper and Middle Township Clerk's Records; the ninth from Justice of the Peace Dockets; the tenth from Cape May and Egg Harbor Friends' Meeting Records; and the eleventh from Bible Records in the Cape May County Historical Society. The book concludes with an index of women's names. Carefully compiled and printed, this book is heartily recommended to genealogical libraries."—New York Genealogical and Biographiacal Record.
